Here we go... It's Barbie time!

Now, if you've been with us for any amount of time, you may be thinking... "Barbie? This feels a little off-brand for The Studio." And honestly... you wouldn't be wrong.

We aren't really focused on the same things Barbie is known for. Sure, we love excellence, creativity, sparkle, and fun—but we also believe in going much deeper than the surface.

So why Barbie?

Because at the heart of the Barbie brand is a message we actually love: empowering girls to believe they can be anything they dream of becoming. And truthfully... that's exactly what we strive to do too.

We just do it BLUE style:

Believe. Love. Unite. Empower.

And in a world where the "barre" seems to keep getting lower and lower for standards, character, commitment, and kindness... we want to keep our barre HIGH.

We love watching dancers do hard things.

We love when they learn to love the process, even when it's difficult.

We love when they include one another, encourage one another, and celebrate each other's victories.

And we especially love when they empower their teammates simply by believing in them.

That's the kind of "dream house" we're trying to build here.

So yes... there will be pink. There will be sparkle. There may even be a few Kens running around backstage.

But underneath all of that, our hope is that every dancer leaves this season stronger, kinder, braver, and more confident in who God created them to be.

And honestly? That feels pretty on-brand for us after all.

We can't wait to celebrate this recital season with you!

With love,

Jennissa and The Studio Staff

Before we head into recital craziness and all things Barbie, I want to take a moment for a few heartfelt thank yous.

First, I need to give a STANDING OVATION to Carrie David, who jumped in to be our temporary office manager during quite literally THE hardest month possible to jump in. Not only has she handled it with grace, flexibility, and a whole lot of patience, but she has poured genuine love into each family she has interacted with. Carrie, thank you for loving our people so well and carrying so much behind the scenes. You're the best, and I just LOVE You! (Instert that hug here)

Thank you to Marissa, our Company Director, who somehow managed to keep approximately 497 balls in the air at all times this season, all while growing our new baby! Love you deeply, friend. The three of us became quite the professional "whack-a-mole" team with every surprise, Chinese fire drill, and plot twist this year brought our way.

Thank you to Amy, Ciara, Leisha, Heather and Ciara for jumping in behind the desk and serving this place with such kindness, flexibility, and heart. Thank you for giving your time, energy, patience, skills and love to our studio families. You matter more than you know.

Thank you to all of our company moms who have stepped in with helping hands, encouraging words, late-night sweet messages, coffee or Torchy runs, backstage support, and encouragement this season. It truly takes a village, and we feel so blessed by ours.

To our dancers... thank you for the way you have consistently chosen growth, resilience, and grown in teamwork. Watching you encourage each other, work hard, and become stronger humans—not just stronger dancers—has been one of the greatest gifts of this season. Keep holding on to what is RIGHT!

To the amazing Staff- You are so much fun! Thank you for bringing your fresh and lovely vibe to our kids! Your passion for teaching dance and loving kids fits so well and We are grateful to each of your for being who you are, and sharing it with us!

To my family... thank you for sacrificing so much for this dream God placed in my heart. Thank you for sharing me with hundreds of kids and families. Eric and Wyatt, you are my dream come true, and I love you more than words can say.

And finally, to my God... all of this is for You and because of You. May every dance, every moment, every lesson, every challenge, and every victory bring glory to You alone.

I am grateful beyond words for this community.

Love,

Ms. JENNISSA

Brielle

Ms. Brielle is in her second season teaching at The Studio! She started dancing at the age of 3 and, quite frankly, never stopped! She fell in love with dance and trained throughout her adolescent years at Michelle Latimer Dance Academy. She absolutely loves teaching the art of dance, and the highlight of her week is spent in the studio with the amazing dancers! Her favorite part of teaching is watching young dancers fall in love with the same sport she loves so much!

Carrie

Ms. Carrie is in her 8th year of teaching at The Studio. She began competitively dancing in 5th grade and has been passionate about it ever since, which led her to earn a BFA in dance and pursue a professional dance career after college. With 13 years of teaching experience, Ms. Carrie is deeply committed to mentoring dancers. She uses dance not only to teach strong technique but also to build character. She finds great joy in seeing her dancers achieve their goals – both in dance and in life.

Gracie

Gracie was born and raised in Seattle, Washington, and began dancing at the age of two. From a very young age, she knew dance was her passion and that she wanted to pursue it professionally while also becoming a teacher. She is a classically trained dancer in ballet, jazz, contemporary, and hip hop, and danced competitively for ten years.

Hailey

Born and raised in New York, Hailey Mele has been passionate about dance for as long as she can remember. With over sixteen years of competitive experience, she has trained in tap, jazz, ballet, contemporary, lyrical, and hip-hop. Hailey began her dance journey at Anita's Studio of Dance, where she later returned as a teacher and choreographer. She has also been a member of several tap companies, including Taplife and STAMP, where she performed and choreographed pieces showcased in various productions.

Jennissa

When I was three years old, my parents gave me the gift of ballet classes for my birthday, but little did they know it was a gift that would shape the rest of my life. I was not the most disciplined child, and dance training provided the focus and self-control needed to pursue my dreams of dancing professionally. When I took over as The Studio Director in 2008, I knew I wanted to give the community of Northern Colorado the same opportunity I had to receive excellent technical training. Over the years, I have developed a passion for developing leaders with solid work ethic, determination, and high standards of morals and character.

Marissa

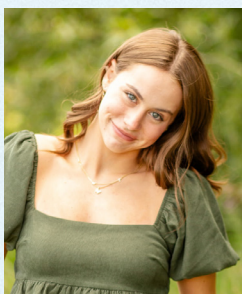

Marissa has been dancing since she was 3 years. She grew up in Long Beach, California, where she danced competitively for 13 years, at a studio, high school cheer/song and dance team. Marissa continued to study dance at San Jose State and received her BFA in dance. During her time at San Jose, she was on their professional dance company. She loves teaching and has been doing so for 15 years. Marissa has taught at many studios and high schools throughout her time as a dance teacher.

Matt

From competition dancer, to studying dance in college at Colorado State University, to getting involved in the culture of hip-hop and street dance as an all-styles dancer, Matt possesses a wide range of styles and perspectives of movement. As a dance teacher, he strives to give students a balance of technique, exercises to build their artistic voice, and engaging choreography to develop confidence as performers. His goal is to inspire students to grow both as dancers and individuals ready to take on the world.

McKenna

McKenna is originally from Colorado Springs and is currently a sophomore at Colorado State University double majoring in Dance and History. McKenna has several years of teaching experience in both studios and public schools, in addition to her passion and dedication to choreography, performance, and education. McKenna actively performs with the CSU dance program and is heavily involved in community engagement projects.

Paige

Paige was born and raised in Highlands Ranch, Colorado. She began dancing at the age of 3 and has been passionate about the sport ever since. With extensive training in jazz, lyrical, hip hop, ballet, contemporary, and pom/game day, Paige has developed a well-rounded dance background. Paige is currently dancing professionally as a Colorado Spartans Dancer and is excited to continue sharing her love of dance with others.

Schyler

Ever since she was a little girl, she had a passion for flipping around the house, the park—any place she could. She felt blessed that her parents enrolled her in gymnastics and later in dance. Tumbling was her first love, and she felt incredibly fortunate to be able to pass that gift on to others. Watching her students light up with excitement when they mastered a new trick—and their eagerness to keep improving—brought back countless cherished memories.

Sophia

Sophia Vasquez has grown up dancing at The Studio, starting at the age of 3. Over these amazing 13 years she has learned many styles, such as ballet, jazz, tap, contemporary, and acro. Sophia has been participating in The Studio performance team for 6 years, and company for 4 years. One reason she loves dancing and teaching at The Studio is the supportive and caring environment.

Taylor

Taylor Lucas started her dancing journey in 2009 with Northern Colorado Academy of Dance Arts in Greeley, CO. Here, she was classically trained in ballet, jazz, lyrical, and contemporary. In 2011, Taylor not only continued her dance education through NCADA but her and her family also joined Rez Dance. At Rez Dance, Taylor became well versed in the style of Hip-Hop. During Taylor's time at Rez Dance, she also joined the outreach company team in 2012 and was the directoral intern from 2020-2022.
